Innovation PSL

Clarilis liberates lawyers from complex manual drafting, so they can spend more time on the work they trained to do. We do this by combining a market-leading automation platform with experienced professional support lawyers who work with customers to deliver deep automated drafting for law firms and inhouse counsel, globally. A UK-based scale-up, Clarilis customers include over 40 of the top 100 law firms in the UK – we also have customers in Canada, US, Singapore and Africa. A scale-up with a proven track record, Clarilis is positively disrupting the legal sector by increasing lawyer capacity (reducing time to first draft by 90%) that has proven game changing and is evidenced by an 100% NPS.

About the role:

We are seeking a qualified lawyer to join Clarilis' PSL-led automation team and provide legal knowledge alongside the document automation process. Corporate, real estate and banking law experience are of particular interest, however other legal specialisms will be considered.

The successful candidate will join an entrepreneurial team at the cutting edge of a key technological development in the legal sector and will have exposure to a client base consisting of large global and top 100 UK firms working within a team of high calibre lawyers from magic circle and other leading firm backgrounds. Reporting to the Implementation Director, our legal team plays a critical role in the automation of our customers' documents and the development of our pre-automated products, alongside our document analysts and technology professionals.

The role involves:

- Designing questionnaires for the automation of our customers' precedent documents
- Preparing the precedent documents for automation by applying logic and ensuring all relevant scenarios are catered for in the document
- Building and maintaining customer relationship alongside working with them to build their automated document suite
- Testing automated suites of legal documents
- Providing training to customers on the automated documents

This opportunity would suit a lawyer who has an interest in legal technology or is seeking a new challenge where they can utilise their legal specialism in a new, exciting, and innovative way.

Having trained with a reputable firm you will have gained at least two years' experience in a fee earning role and will possess meticulous drafting skills. The position would also suit candidates with substantially more experience.

You will be joining a friendly and supportive team within a company that offers an excellent work/life balance and challenging work. This position could accommodate either a full-time or part-time candidate or there is the opportunity to have a flexible working week if required.

EEO Policy:

Clarilis is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regards to race, colour, religion, sex, national origin, disability, sexual orientation or any other characteristics protected by law.

Flexible working arrangements are available

Location: Leamington Spa
